'Round the Riviera

By MARY WEBB
Frontier 5-3051

Shades of spooks and goblins! It's the eve of Halloween, and tomorrow night, small witches, devils and their cohorts will roam the Riviera. And again, the Sportsmen's Club will present their annual Halloween party at El Retiro Park, starting at 7 p. m. Leon Oakes, 162 Via Los Miradores, newly appointed publicity chairman for the club, reports that they expect some six hundred young spooks and their parents to be present at the festivities. New club president Chuck Donahue says Ray Borman is in charge of the refreshments, which will include coffee, doughnuts, candy and grab bags with favors for the kids. There will be prizes galore for the best Halloween costumes in all age groups, to be judged by Sportsmen Club members. All Riviera parents and children are invited to attend this affair, one of those which marks the Riviera as the wonderful neighborhood it is.

Our report of the twins expected at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Seaholm, 221 Calle de Madrid, has brought another to light. William and Fay Baxter, 102 Via Sevilla, report that their doctor confirms that she will have twins any day now. Fay already made two false alarm trips to the hospital. It's that close! The birth of the twins will make the Baxter family six in all, including sons Mike, 4, and David, 1.

A sextet of Riverians journeyed to Los Angeles Oct. 18 to enjoy "Don Juan in Hell," currently at the Philharmonic Auditorium. They were Kay and Steve Broughton, Ruth and John Smith, and Pat and Bob Brockett.

Mrs. W. F. Toombs, 132 Via Colusa, was hostess recently at a dinner and card party given at her home in honor of officers and chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 170.

In keeping with the spirit of Halloween, gifts and prizes for the high scorers of the evening were presented by an authentically dressed and broomed "witch," who turned out later to be husband Toombs.

Autumn leaves, yellow chrysanthemums and matching candies set the seasonal decor.

Mrs. Vene L. Darby, 240 Via Buena Ventura, held a Bob Finch rally at her home last Sunday evening with approximately 30 persons from the Riviera attending. The group discussed the various propositions now on the Nov. 4 ballot and held a question and answer period following the discussion.

Mr. and Mrs. Perez Cobb Jr., 350 Camino de las Colinas, are the only Riverians we found who held a winning ticket at the Finch rally held at El Camino recently. Their prize: Two round trip tickets to Catalina via air.

Mrs. Cobb remarks this is the only thing she ever won, not counting a can of carrots and beans won years ago.

The Cobbs bought their winning ticket from their daughter, Dawn Cobb, member of the Young Republicans of South Bay, who figures in the news two ways this week. Firstly, this is her first year of teaching, and she is teaching first grade, and it's also her first year to vote. Dawn graduated from Mt. St. Mary's College in Brentwood last June.

Secondly, Miss Dawn Cobb was hostess last Oct. 18 at a shower given in honor of her classmate friend, Miss Eileen Mielidish of San Diego. Thirty guests from all over Southern California and Arizona attended the affair. Miss Mielidish is the fiancée of Patrick Hempling of Long Beach, who recently returned from a year's tour of duty in Korea with the Army. She is a graduate of Mount St. Mary's, Brentwood, while Hempling is a Loyola University alumnus.

Huskamp, 113 Pasco de Granada, meets every Wednesday at 3:30 at the Riviera School. Mrs. Huskamp reports that the girls are in an intermediate class and are currently working on earning their second class awards. Twelve girls are members of this Riviera Girl Scout troop. This is the fourth consecutive year that Mrs. Huskamp has worked with Girl Scouts, and some of the current 12 girls have been with her since 1948.

Among those presently belonging to Troop 110 are Lynn Duman, Ann Davis, Jolyn Ferrel, Alice Frisbee, Sandra Kratzer, Joyce Law, Adele Mullen, Ann Porter, Lynn Satterlee, Sherrill Smith, Jean Huskamp, and Sue Dorsett.

November 20 is the date set for the next meeting of Las Matanzas El Camino is the place. The meeting will be held in the cafeteria at 1:30.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry M. Ure, formerly of 924 Calle Miramar, recently moved to their new home in Palos Verdes.

Mrs. John A. Shidler, 317 Camino de las Colinas, was mistress of ceremonies at last Thursday evening's meeting of the Grant Community League in Redondo Beach. Guest of honor was Rep. Cecil King, candidate for re-election to Congress from 17th District, who reviewed his own congressional record.

One last reminder and urging: Whether you're Democrat, Republican or Independent, remember—next Tuesday is Nov. 4, the day to vote. Start your get-out-the-vote drive with yourself; be sure to vote.

Film On Israel To Be Shown At Sunday Service

Dr. Myron Sackett, director of the Christian Friends of Israel, Inc., will show colored sound motion pictures of "on the spot" activities filmed in Israel at the Sunday evening service of Four Square Church.

Dr. Sackett, accompanied by his wife, recently returned from Palestine. He will speak to the congregation of the work done by the Christian Friends in the Near East.

Sunday school will convene at 9:30, followed by Rev. and Mrs. William H. Clayton, pastors, and the morning service will start at 10:45. The sermon topic is "Worshipping in the Spirit."
